HOMELESS EXPO AT WPB HEALTH CENTER

WEST PALM BEACH—During National Hunger and Homeless Week the Palm Beach County Health Department in conjunction with the Homeless Coalition is sponsoring a Homeless Expo Thursday, November 15 at the West Palm Beach Health Center, 1150 45th Street from 9:00 AM to 11:30 AM.

Numerous organizations and service groups will be present during the expo to answer questions and assist homeless and other individuals with programs available that can assist in helping them obtain services.

The Health Department has a federal grant which allows it to provide primary care services to the homeless and the expo is a way to help assist those in obtaining the medical attention they need.

The morning activities will conclude with a "Light the Way Home" memorial service to those who have died hungry and homeless in Palm Beach County.

The expo is open free to the public and information can be obtained by calling the Homeless coalition at 561-478-5351 or visiting the website at www.homelesscoalitionpbc.org.
